

CANNON'S FIGHT FOR LIFE

He is Having Most Desperate
Campaign

TAFT AND BRYAN ON STUMP

The Republican Candidate Campaigning in West Virginia and Kentucky,
Rival in His Home State
To-day.

Joseph G. Cannon is having the hardest fight of his life for re-election to Congress, and if he wins, the contest will be taken to Congress, where his opponents hope to prevent his re-election as speaker.

William Howard Taft, Republican candidate for president, was campaigning in West Virginia and Kentucky yesterday, while his rival, William Jennings Bryan, was swinging around Nebraska, his home state, following in the footsteps of Governor Hughes. The former was greeted by a big crowd at Huntington, W. Va., where he made his first stop. Bryan made 18 speeches during the day, and there were eight extra stops. At one place, referring to contributions, he said: "I believe it is better that a party shall be obligated to thousands of people, each giving small sums, than to a few people each giving large sums."

The story that labor leader Keefe was promised a federal office if he would support Taft seems to be exploded. Timothy Healy who originated the story, can give no better authority for it than "a member of the cabinet," whose name he will not mention.

The largest contribution to Bryan's campaign from one source was $5,000 from Charles J. Hughes, who proves to be a corporation lawyer, and counsel for the Denver public utilities corporation. The Boston Transcript's representative contributes the second of his series of special stories on the campaign, and the prevailing note is "apathy," which, he finds, is chiefly due to the lack of the usual big campaign fund.

Secretary Wilson Makes Predictions.
Chicago, Oct. 16.—Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson arrived in Chicago Wednesday night after a strenuous tour of speaking through Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. "The Republicans will carry all these states, but by greatly reduced pluralities," he said yesterday. "The Democrats are together this time and are fighting hard. Mr. Bryan is a high-minded and respectable man and will get nearly all of the Democratic vote in Nebraska and Kansas, but I don't think he can carry either state."

THE MOSE JURY

IS LOCKED UP

Judge Hough Thinks It Is Dangerous to Leave Them Open to Approach
—The Ice King Is Plainly Worried.

New York, Oct. 16.—Brushing aside the usual practice of the federal courts, Judge Hough, before whom Charles W. Morse and Alfred H. Curtis are on trial for alleged irregularities in connection with the National Bank of North America, ordered the jury locked up yesterday. At the instance of the court six special deputy marshals were sworn in to guard the twelve men who had been chosen to try the former ice king and the man who was the nominal head of his bank.

The action came as a shock to the defense. Nothing of the kind had been anticipated. Judge Hough offered no explanation, nor did United States District Attorney Stimson; in fact, the action was taken without suggestion from Mr. Stimson. But Judge Hough himself had reached the conclusion that in such an important trial, with such great interests involved, it would be dangerous if the jurors were left open to being approached.

That, however, was only one of the shocks of the day. The opening address of the prosecutor to the jury worried the former ice king. He leaned over toward his lawyer, Wallace Macfarlane, and he perspired freely and mopped his forehead repeatedly as Mrs. Stimson went on.

Before the lawyer had gone far, he brought forth a fact heretofore kept dark—that there was a young woman in the strange ramification of Morse finance.

He charged that the bank of North America had lent to Miss Wilson, Morse's stenographer, $125,000 on a block of stock of the bank. The shares in scattered lots had been bought up by the brokerage firm of Primrose & Vaughan, and found their way back into the bank as the basis for a loan with the note of the young woman. The name on the note was "J. A. Wilson," and the United States bank examiners, not knowing that this was none other than the pretty typewriter in Morse's office, found no fault with the transaction.

Another shock came when the prosecutor concluded his address of two hours by telling the jurors that while all other banks in the panic times were guarding their funds Morse cashed checks to the amount of $210,000, making an overdraft of that amount. The next day some loan transactions to cover the overdraft were spread on the books.

"The government will show you that its charges are based upon the deals in this ice securities company, the steamship consolidations, the alleged purchase of bank stocks, and alleged overdrafts," said Mr. Stimson in opening his address. "In 1906, the government will show that the defendant Morse was engaged with a number of gentlemen, whose names it is not necessary to give, in a pool that was manipulating the stock of the American Ice company, which it intended to purchase at a low price and sell at a large profit."

PROS. VS. AMATEURS.

Canadians Anxious to Restore The Col-less Hockey Play.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—A certain element among Canadian followers of hockey is studying the possibilities of bringing the ice sport back to its strictly amateur status of several years ago. There is a strong undercurrent of feeling among lovers of the game that the old method should be followed of not having salaried players on the team of the Eastern Canadian Hockey League. Those desirous for the restoration of amateurism contend that the game was cleaner than before professionalism developed, and that the frequent "rough-house" tactics of the present day playing in local rinks is something that was almost never indulged in when the players were on the ice through pure love of playing the game and not with the expectation of getting a weekly salary.

Those in favor of doing away with professional hockey are confident that the public is eager for a league composed of teams of amateur standing only. Rough work has been so prevalent at games in the Dominion during the last few years that the attendance has fallen off, but the prospect of certainly seeing a fast clever game free from ungentlemanly play would win back these admirers. The believers in amateur play have much to contend with in their efforts to bar professionals, for opposition is so strong that the amateur game would find it difficult to displace the professional game from the playing field of the season with one Canadian team. Just as long as the clubs have good financial backing professional play will be extant in this section of the country.

The Canadian clubs already have their lines out for players and reports of generous sums for stick manipulators of reputation are frequently brought in from the local rink last year, is said to have been signed for this season by at least four clubs. The skater himself has made a denial in each instance, but admits that his ability may be contracted for when a big enough sum has been mentioned. One report is that he has been offered $5,000 to play for the season with one Canadian team. With such sums being offered for players it may be seen that efforts to put the game on an amateur standing will not meet with huge success.

The fact that several clubs in the United States are negotiating with players only serves to strengthen the opposition for the return of amateur playing in Canadian league circles.

TO HALF COST OF PAPER

Government Chemists Make
This Prediction

CORNSTALKS TO MAKE IT

This Will Be of Great Benefit to the Farmers—Will Provide a Market for a Hitherto Unused Commodity.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Chemists of the bureau of forestry and of the bureau of plant industry of the department of agriculture believe that they have solved the problem of a cheaper paper that will dispense altogether with the use of wood fibre. The new material, from which already five grades have successfully been made, is the ordinary cornstalk, and officials of the department yesterday predicted that the new product, when made on a large scale, will be at least 50 per cent. cheaper than the print paper now made from wood pulp.

The first practicable samples have been manufactured by Dr. H. S. Bristol and his assistants at the new laboratory on Pennsylvania avenue. Dr. Bristol has already carried his experiments to the point of making the paper in five shades. One grade is dark gray, thick and heavy like parchment, and almost as tough as sheepskin. Then there is a lighter shade of the same character, two shades of yellow, and one of white.

The white paper is made from the hard outside shell of the stalk and the yellow grades from the pith. The yellow grades have a much longer fibre, and resemble paper made from linen rags or from cotton.

Millions of tons of cornstalks will be available for this new manufacture, according to the department of agriculture.

Douglas-Lincoln Tablet.

Alton, Ill., Oct. 16.—A memorial tablet to mark the place where the debate between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas occurred on October 13, 1858, was unveiled here yesterday. The tablet was presented to the city by the Rev. A. A. Tanner of Alton and was accepted by Mayor Edmund Beall.

WHY SUFFER?

Breathe Hyomei and Kill the Loathsome
Catarrh Germs.

Just as long as you have catarrh your nose will itch, your breath will be foul, you will hawk and spit, and you will do other disgusting things because you can't help yourself. The germs of catarrh have got you in their power; they are continually and persistently digging into and irritating the mucous membrane of your nose and throat. They are now making your life miserable, in time they will sap your entire system of its energy, its strength, its vigor and vitality. If you do not kill the loathsome germs of catarrh, their desperate assaults will in time undermine your reason, rob your brain of its brilliancy and activity, and leave you not only a physical but a mental wreck.

This picture is not overdrawn; the writer has seen thousands of just such cases. He has personally experienced the demoralizing results that come from the ravishing attacks of the horrible catarrh germs, the greatest pest of civilized nations.

But there is one remedy that will kill the germs and cure catarrh, and that is Hyomei, the Australian dry air treatment. There may be other remedies, but they are not guaranteed as The Red Cross Pharmacy will guarantee Hyomei to cure catarrh, or money back. Don't delay this pleasant antiseptic treatment. Every day you allow these germs to exist in your system brings you nearer to complete demoralization. The Red Cross Pharmacy will sell you a complete Hyomei outfit for only $1.00. Ask them about it. It is also guaranteed to cure bronchitis, asthma, coughs, colds and hay fever.

WOULD "RUSH" BAKE SHOP

Socialist M. P.'s Advice to the Unemployed

HIS ARREST FOLLOWS.

The British Labor Demonstration—Troubles at Sunderland and Middlesbrough—
Sheffield Checks Riots; Men
Marching on Nottingham.

London, Oct. 16.—The recent demonstrations by the unemployed in Great Britain brought about one result yesterday rather out of the ordinary; this was the issuing of a writ against William James Thorne, Social-Democrat member of Parliament from the southern division of West Haven, for inciting to a breach of the peace by making a speech in which he advised the unemployed to "rush" the bake shops, rather than starve. A body of the unemployed is marching today from Nottingham to London. Serious riots were avoided in Sheffield yesterday only when the mayor announced that the sum of $500,000 would be devoted to relief work. There have been demonstrations of the unemployed also at Sunderland and Middlesbrough.

Albert V. Grayson, Socialist member from Yorkshire, tried to raise a debate in the House yesterday on the unemployed question. The speaker, however, ruled him out of order. Mr. Grayson then denounced the members for not securing the starving thousands on the streets of London, and defied the speaker. The speaker then instructed the sergeant-at-arms to remove the recalcitrant Socialist, whereupon Mr. Grayson withdrew his remark and said, amid the jeers of his colleagues: "I leave this House with the greatest pleasure."

NEW YORK TROUBLE SERIOUS.

One Strikebreaker Badly Injured and His Taxicab Ruined.

New York, Oct. 16.—There was a continuation last night of the trouble incident to the taxicab strike. Many arrests were made and many incipient riots were nipped by the army of policemen that has been especially detailed to watch the situation. George A. Leavitt, a strike breaker, was brutally assaulted in Seventy-second street. His skull it is believed, was fractured, and he was removed to the Presbyterian hospital. It is thought that he will die. The taxicab he was driving was ruined and had to be hauled back to the garage.

To prevent a recurrence of the assaults on hotels, such as have occurred the last few nights, extra policemen were stationed at all the big Broadway hotels and restaurants. From Fifty-ninth street to One Hundred and Sixteenth street a force of extra special policemen was stationed along the park wall to prevent the throwing of missiles at passing taxicabs. At the headquarters of the New York Taxicab company it was said by Superintendent Higgins that fourteen of the old employees had reported for work and had taken out cabs.

CHICAGO TURNS OUT TO GREET WINNERS

Return of World's Champions to Windy
City Today Signal For More Enthusiasm.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Exultant over their victory in winning the world's championship, the Chicago team of the National league arrived home from Detroit early yesterday and was met at the station by an enthusiastic crowd. When the train pulled into the station here a mob of baseball enthusiasts rushed through the gates and carried a "Welcome Home" to the individual players.

Some of the players announced their intention of preparing for fishing and hunting trips, although they are scheduled for an exhibition game to be played here with the Detroit team on Sunday. In this game the players will appear as individuals and not as clubs.

COVALESKI STUNTS.

Giant Killer to Pitch For Cubs or Tigers.

Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 16.—Pitcher Covalesski of the Philadelphia Nationals whose name is a nightmare to the supporters of the New York Giants, has announced that he has been asked to pitch for one of the teams, either the Cubs or the Tigers, in the exhibition games which those two clubs propose playing in Chicago on Saturday and Sunday. The big Quaker southpaw pitched for the representative team of this place yesterday against the Philadelphia Athletics for four innings and did not allow a single hit and struck out five batsmen. He was replaced by Weaver and the American leaguers won out by a score of 5 to 3.

CLEVELAND MANAGERSHIP.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—Secretary E. S. Barnard of the Cleveland club emphatically denies the report that the Cleveland club offered William Murray manager of the Philadelphia National league team, a five year contract as manager of the Naps, with a salary of $10,000 a year.

"No offer has ever been made by the Cleveland club to Murray," said Barnard Sunday.

INEBRIETY WORST DISEASE.

More Fatal Than Consumption, Says Dr.
Crothers.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 16.—The Mississippi Valley Medical association concluded its annual convention yesterday. An interesting paper of the final session was that of Dr. T. D. Crothers, superintendent of the Walnut Lodge hospital, Hartford, Conn. The doctor contended that inebriety was a far more fatal disease than consumption and was more widely spread. The so-called moderate use of spirits, by diminishing the vitality and lowering the resisting power of nature, he said, was an active cause of consumption and typhoid fever and was accountable for over eighty per cent. of all cases of pneumonia. In fact there was no disease known, and no surgical operation performed that was not induced and made worse by spirits. The whole alcoholic problem, he continued, was a physical one, the result of disease controlled by laws which move with the same exactness and certainty as any other operation in nature.

PRESIDENT PLANS MESSAGE.

He Confers With the Heads of the Departments.

Washington, Oct. 16.—The president was busy yesterday holding conferences and working on his annual message to Congress. He discussed with Secretary of the Interior Garfield and Chief Forester Pinchot recommendations he will make concerning their departments. He conferred on immigration matters with Secretary Straus and Robert Watson, commissioner of immigration at New York. The general political situation was reviewed at an hour's conference between the president and Representative Loudenslager of New Jersey, secretary of the Republican congressional committee. Mr. Loudenslager said he told the president that the committee was getting plenty of activity though not plenty of money, but that the Republican prospects were good.

TSCHAIKOVSKY TO GO.

Will Be Released From Prison Tomorrow.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 16.—M. Tschai-kovsky, the revolutionary leader, will be released from prison here on Saturday, according to an announcement made to his daughter, Mrs. Bressy, by the Procurator-General.

Cash bail for $25,000 must be deposited for his appearance at his trial, but it will be obtained today without difficulty, it is believed.

The aged Russian leader was arrested several months ago upon his return from a lecture trip through the United States. He is charged with inciting revolution. His daughter has been working devotedly for her father's release since her mother's health was broken by anxiety on behalf of her husband.

It is believed here that M. Tschai-kovsky, upon his release, will go to his estate in the Crimea, where his wife has been since her health failed. After his trial, he plans to make another trip to the United States, it is said.

Mathewson to Head an Invasion of Cuba.

New York, Oct. 16.—Christy Mathewson will take 12 of the New York Giants to Cuba, where the team will play with various teams in the island during November. The Cincinnati team will be in Havana at the same time, and it is likely a series of games between the teams will be arranged. The Giants who will invade Cuba are: Mathewson, Wiltsie, Taylor, McGinnity, Needham, Snodgrass, Merkle, Doyle, Devlin, Dahlen, Barry, McCormick and Seymour. The Giants leave next week, playing at Richmond, Portsmouth, Norfolk, Va., Tampa and Key West, Fla., arriving at Havana the latter part of this month.
